Vows Said Among Fall Flowers At Church Altar

One of the loveliest of fall weddings was that of Miss Garnet Rose Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cook, to Mr. Leo Harry Sidebotham, which took place Tuesday evening at the Central Evangelical church at 8:30 p. m.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sidebotham of Lomita.

Approximately 300 guests witnessed the ceremony, which was solemnized by the Reverend G. G. Schmidt.

The couple pledged their troth before the chancel rail, which was banked with palms and beautiful baskets of fall flowers. Extending the length of the rostrum was a lattice, interwoven with greenery and deep pink rosebuds and centered by a huge basket of pink and yellow dahlias tied with pink tulle.

Preceding the ceremony, Gordon Groves Jr., of Lomita, violinist and Miss Viola Harlan of Lomita at the organ, played "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of ivory satin, made sleeveless and with a long fitted bodice, and falling into exquisite drapes on each side. The bridal veil was of old Spanish lace, held in place coronet style by a wreath of orange blossoms. A three strand necklace of pearls and crystal encircled her throat. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, lily of the valley and white rosebuds.

Attending her was Miss Daisy Koehler of Torrance, who wore a gown of blue taffeta, made with a fitted bodice, and a full skirt that fell to the ankles in the back. She carried pink rosebuds.

Little Anne Kemison, in pink taffeta and tulle was flower girl and carried a circle of rosebuds and petals, which she scattered in the path of the bride.

Noah Hendricks was best man to the groom, and Harold Cook, brother of the bride, and William Pangborn were ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Sidebotham left for a honeymoon to Paris unknown. After October 1, they will be at home to their friends in Huntington Park.

Later, they plan to build a home on El Prado and live in Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Sidebotham are popular both in Lomita and Torrance and have a host of friends who wish them happiness. The groom is associated with his father in the Sidebotham Sand and Gravel company in Lomita.

QUIET WEDDING SEPTEMBER 3 Inez Muriel, Shell and George Reynolds, both of Torrance, were quietly married in Los Angeles Tuesday, September 3.

Mr. Reynolds is an employee of the Columbia Steel Corporation.
